

Hands on Banking – Practitioner Presentation – Getting Started

Thank you for your interest in using the Hands on Banking Financial Education presentations. To get started, follow the steps below for a successful session.

WHY HANDS ON BANKING

Hands on Banking is an award-winning financial education program that is provided by Wells Fargo. It is a great way to present Financial Education to a group of participants. Check out the Hands on Banking Overview Page for a video with more information.

SET A DATE

Once you've found an organization, be sure to set a date for your volunteer session.

MATERIALS

Materials can be found on the Hands on Banking - Practitioners page on the Hands on Banking website. There are presentations, handouts and certificates available for emailing or sharing virtually. There are materials for the following age groups:

- Youth
- High School
- Adults / Young Adults
- Older Adults

PRACTICE

Practicing your presentation can help things go smoothly during your volunteer session. It's a great way to work out any issues and allows you to time your session.

VOLUNTEER / PRESENT

After following the steps above, now is the time to volunteer! For tips and information about volunteering, download the Volunteer Tips document.
